

NEW YORK, Sept. 30.—The St. Regis Indians were defeated by the New York Lacrosse club by a score of 2 to 1.

Brightening Skies.

Indications that the industrial condition of the country is improving come from various quarters, and give encouragement to the belief that the long period of depression is nearly at an end. One of the remarkable things about that period is that, while at its height, there has been more or less close approximation to a state of panic such as overwhelmed the country in 1877, each succeeding point of danger has been passed without a crash. The providential recurrence of splendid crops has rendered this escape from repeated dangers possible; but even in spite of this, disaster could scarcely have been avoided but for the wise prudence of the classes who are able to influence and direct business enterprises. There has been, of course, overproduction in some lines and hazardous speculation in others, but the great body of the men engaged in manufacturing and merchandizing, profiting by the unpleasant experiences that followed the flush times at the close of the war, have held their affairs so well in hand that every unfavorable turn in the market has been met with prepared. Depression and dullness have forced many of the weak and imprudent out of the field, while the stronger men who read the warning signals and heeded them, still live to profit by the "good time coming."

Among the evidences of revivification in the manufacturing field, there have been several announcements of the resumption of long-suspended fires in some of the Pennsylvania furnaces; and our late dispatches announced that one of the great mills in Lawrence, Mass., which has been idle for a year, will immediately resume work, with a force of nearly 3,000 hands. These occurrences might be only of local interest but for the fact that they are direct in consequence of an improved and encouraged feeling, which is beginning to pervade the whole country. As the evidences of the existence of such improvement and increased confidence, they are important and valuable. (Chicago Sun.)

GENERAL A. E. CARMAN, of New York, through his attorney, Judge Bicknell, of Louisville, has instituted suit for $10,000 against John Thompson, Mr. Atterton, of Louisville, Mr. Stagg, of Lexington, and Mr. Levy, of Cincinnati. These defendants are all distillers. Carman is the attorney who procured for them last winter the famous order for the extension of the bonded period. Ruin was staring the distillers in the face at the time and this extension of the bonded period enabled them to export their whisky and save themselves. Carman claims that he was to receive $12,500 for his services in the case, of which only $2,500 have been paid and that by Thompson. The rest of these distillers have refused to pay, and the suit is the result of their refusal. Carman is said to have had considerable influence with the department at Washington. The fact that he succeeded in procuring the order which has enabled them to export their whisky and save themselves, has caused some comment, and the parties interested as well as the general public will probably be made acquainted with the methods he pursued before the department, by this suit. The developments of the trial will no doubt be interesting to the whisky men throughout the country.

Hon. John G. Carlisle.

The Washington correspondence of the Cincinnati Enquirer, of the 28th instant, contains the following in regard to the Hon. John G. Carlisle. It is a just tribute to the exalted standing and merits of this distinguished statesman:

"The re-election of Speaker Carlisle is assured without opposition. This is as it should be. Political friend and foe alike ascribe to Mr. Carlisle the pluck of being the fairest Speaker who ever occupied the chair. His decisions are all based on equity and strict parliamentary usages, no matter which party feels the effect."

"If Carlisle lived in a Northern State he would be a magnet for the Presidential nomination. He is a man who is thoroughly just in all things. As a debater he is skilled, and as a logician unopposed. His speeches about the currency and the tariff are about the ablest in the annals of congress. His unassuming re-election will be a well-deserved recognition of those qualities which, after all, make a great man—fair dealing and sterling honesty. Mr. Carlisle is a quietly wise, fitted to grace any circle."

If the disposal of the public lands keeps up like it has for the past year, the public domain will soon be disposed of. Statements prepared by the land office show that for the year ending June 30, 1885, over 20,000,000 acres were disposed of for a little more than $7,000,000. The total number of acres taken under railroad selections was 3,558,947 acres.

Rumors from the cholera-infected districts in the Southern part of France show that the disease is on the increase.

GATHERED THEM IN.

Chicago Gambling Houses Raided and the Laidies Destroyed.

CHICAGO, Sept. 30.—Squads of policemen in civilian clothes went to eight of the downtown gambling houses. Four houses were found open and running in full blast; the others were closed. Games were placed at the doors and windows of the houses while the balance of the policemen busied themselves in collecting the chips and gambling tools preparatory to taking them away. Before ten minutes had expired six patrol wagons were clustered about the corner of Clark and Madison streets. Squads of uniformed policemen jumped down from them. Headed by a lieutenant or a sergeant each squad broke away by itself and marched up into a gambling house.

Clark street from Monroe to Randolph swarmed with a curious multitude. A few minutes later and then the policemen appeared with the men who were caught in the houses. They were loaded into the patrol wagons and carried down to the Harris street station. Twenty-eight tables were captured with ninety inmates and marched to the station. The tables were smashed up in the alley back of the station and burned. A couple dozen faro boxes and as many counters were also destroyed. The raid was conducted from the direction of Captain Buckley. It was well planned and so well carried out that it was a surprise to all the houses which had opened.

ASIATIC CHOLERA.

The Plague Said to Have Reached Eastern Maine.

BANGOR, Me., Sept. 30.—There is much anxiety here in eastern Maine regarding the reports of the existence of Asiatic cholera at Hantsport, Nova Scotia, as there is a great deal of travel between the provinces and the states. It is reported that the deaths at Hantsport average six a day out of a population of only a thousand. The epidemic is said to have been caused in this way: Last fall a school of black fish came up the river, which runs along between the village. The fish were loaded with cholera, and when they were put on the mud flat, they weighed several tons. A local firm secured the fish, and taking a large quantity of oil from them, buried the carcasses on the shore.

This summer the place where the fish were buried became a regular stench pit. The wind was blowing from the river the smell in the village was almost unbearable. This was allowed to continue for some time, but finally a covering of lime and earth was put over the carcasses and the stench caused no further annoyance. The neglect of an effective sanitary rule is at the bottom of the trouble. Bangor is in frequent communication with Palermo, Messina and other Mediterranean ports by means of Italian vessels in the French and the British. The island quarantine station may come into service.

A Big Crop.

BORDENTOWN, N. J., Sept. 30.—Dr. John B. Breyer, a resident of this city and president of the New Jersey Cerebral and Cerebral, reports the crop unprecedented on one bog in Burlington county containing six acres, yielded 1,000 bushels. There has been slight frost, but none to injure the berries.

IN A NUTSHELL.

The News Compressed Into Sharp, Pointed Paragraphs.

Reports regarding the cotton crop in Georgia and Alabama are encouraging, though a falling off in production is noticeable. Jordan, Marsh & Co., of Boston, are threatened with additional attachments. They claim that it is a conspiracy, and that they do not owe the sum claimed. George Smith was found in a badly bruised condition on the railroad near Woodstock. He claimed to have been robbed of $1,500 and thrown from a train.

John Broder and Henry Davis were fatally injured by the fall of a chimney at the new incinerium building at Logansport, Ind., on which they were at work.

John Kurwin, deputy city clerk of Nehalem, Va., is charged with assaulting and causing the death of a young girl, Miss Christine Lagrange, who committed suicide.

The inauguration of compulsory vaccination in Montreal caused a riot, which was with difficulty quelled. There were forty-four deaths from smallpox in Montreal.

Adams express wagons are employed in loading the treasure from the wreck of the steamer, which has transported a vast amount of silver from the New Orleans sub-treasury.

Reports from Arizona are to the effect that Geronimo and his band are at large. Gen. Crook is quarreling with his officers, and there is no immediate hope of ending the war.

Capt. Conner estimates the value of John McCullough's property at between $50,000 and $55,000. The distinguished actor is daily growing worse, and there is no hope of his recovery.

The engine on a mixed train on the Indiana & Illinois Southern railroad went through a bridge over the north fork of the Embarras river, near Willow Hill, Ill. The engineer was fatally hurt.

Examination of the affairs of the Framingham savings bank, of Massachusetts, whose cashier, Coleman Adams, committed suicide last August, shows he was a defaulter to the extent of $229,000.

At Indianapolis, in the case of Neesham vs. John C. New and John G. Wright, charging fraud in a sale of stock of the old First National bank, and in which the jury gave a verdict of $104,700 damages, a new trial was granted.

Suit has been filed at Muncie, Ind., by Mrs. Liberty Ginn against her husband for divorce and $25,000 alimony. She has also entered suit for $25,000 damages for libel for allegations made against her character in cross-complaint.

At Abingdon, Va., Judge George W. Ward, editor of the Examiner, and Commonwealth attorney for Washington county, was fired on and perhaps fatally wounded by Dr. Wm. White, independent candidate for state senator, and several of his relatives.

THE MOB IN MONTREAL

RIOTOUS FRENCH-CANADIANS CAUSE
A GREAT SENSATION.

Deep Indignation Expressed on All Sides.
The March of Militia—Declaring Martial Law—They Will Not Vaccinate—Fearful Mortality.

MONTREAL, Sept. 30.—The police have since made a number of arrests of rioters and great excitement prevails. Several of the police were badly beaten. The police have been ordered to patrol the public buildings all night. At a late hour the mob had dispersed for the night and the city was quiet.

The riot has caused a great sensation throughout the city, and deep indignation is expressed on all sides against the French-Canadians. The English are determined that such actions must be put an end to and nothing will be left undone to prevent a repetition of the riot. The military have been ordered under arms, and the several regiments are now parading. The mayor expresses his intention of allowing an emergency meeting of the citizens, and will proclaim martial law if necessary. A feeling is expressed that there must be no wavering now, and that the French must be made to obey the order of the health authorities.

A gentleman on the citizens' committee claimed that there were at least 4,000 cases of smallpox in the city. The meeting of the theatre Royal has been indefinitely postponed on account of the epidemic. In the Roman Catholic church the Rev. Father Eward read the papal decree, which is considered as applying to the smallpox epidemic in Montreal and which was issued by his holiness, Pope Leo XIII. under date of the 30th of August last. The decree alludes to the ravages of the epidemic and plagues among the faithful, and expresses the most earnest wishes for the recovery of the most of the faithful, and expresses the most earnest wishes for the recovery of the most of the faithful.

In the Catholic churches, the priests strongly urged their congregations to be vaccinated and advised all those with smallpox in their families to stay at home. The health officer returns shows forty-eight deaths from smallpox in this city, three in St. Henri, two in St. Coudgote, and three in Cote St. Louis.

The English speaking people are much in-tensed at the action of three of the French aldermen, who in the city council, denounced compulsory vaccination, and thus encouraged the rioters. They have passed a resolution condemning it, but failed. The had the appropriation cut down from $5,000 to $2,000. These are the men who represent the wards where smallpox is most prevalent and take this course to carry favor with their constituents.

The police were much annoyed all through or they might have dispersed the mob. The rioters do not appear to heed the fearful figures of last week, which show that 340 persons died, of which all were French Canadian Catholics with the exception of six Protestants. The Protestants vaccinate.

CIGAR MAKERS.

Closing of the Convention in Cincinnati.
Meet in Two Years.

CINCINNATI, Sept. 30.—The cigar makers' committee on consolidating the international union with the Progressive union consisted of the following members of the international on the committee: C. R. Hogan, Richmond, Va.; H. Otten, Albany, N. Y.; Chas. Ert, Detroit, Mich.; John C. Bartlett, Williamsburgh, N. Y.; Louis Benjamin, Cincinnati.

The resolution of the committee on strikes "to submit the question of continuance or discontinuance of all strikes in progress to the executive board once a month," was adopted. A vote was taken upon a list of cities proposed, at which, to hold the next biennial convention of the union. After a half-day balloting the choice fell to Boston.

The committee on constitution began its report. The convention will probably adjourn until its next regular meeting two years hence, at Boston. Important to Editors. DETROIT, Sept. 30.—Judge Chapman, of the supreme court, ruled, decided in the libel suit of Jonas Rowe, against the Free Press, that newspapers are not privileged to publish reports of declarations or complaints filed in court on a writ of habeas corpus. He holds that documents are not part of the court proceedings, and that if a newspaper publishes them, it is liable for libel. The publication of all cases begun in court until they come up for trial. In the present case the Free Press is now compelled to justify itself by proving charges made in a bill for divorce filed some months ago, by Mrs. Rowe, in which she charged her husband with adultery.

Moulder's Strike.

WAKEFIELD, Mass., Sept. 30.—Six weeks ago after a fortnight's shut down the Smith & Anthony stone foundry here resumed work, the employees accepting a 15 per cent reduction of wages on account of the business depression. Since then business has steadily improved until now the moulders are working full time. Fifty-one moulders struck for a restoration of rates. Their demand was taken into consideration.

Cleveland Strikers.

CLEVELAND, Sept. 30.—The locked out strikers have made no unusual demonstration as yet. They still threaten, however, and keep the excitement at fever heat. Many persons think that something serious will take place at the Cleveland rolling mills. The Poles and Bohemians, who are now threatening to leave, up the mills, are those that were imported from Europe, by the company two years ago.

Fifty Day Fast.

SYRACUSE, N. Y., Sept. 30.—This is the fiftieth day of Miss Veronica Bulla's fast. She began fasting August 10, and nothing but water has since passed her lips. She has lost twenty pounds weight, and is now too weak to rise from her bed. Though until a few days ago she could walk about the house, Mrs. Bulla began to faint on account of inability to retain food, owing to some stomach trouble.

CHICAGO, Sept. 30.—Senator Eustus, of Louisiana, is here. He told a friend that he was still opposed to the administration and should expect confirmation of appointments "right and left" when the senate convened.
